

The Committee to Celebrate Burnt Hills and Commemorate the Start of the Civil War met on May 17, 2011, at the Community Library at 7PM. Attending were Amy Clark, Karen DeAngelo and Rick Reynolds.

The poster that will be used to publicize the event was discussed. Amy had a "prototype" and some changes/adjustments were made to it. Amy will continue to work on that.

Event will be held at the Burnt Hills Baptist Church on July 30 from 9-1. It will be mainly indoors but, if it is nice, some of it could spill over to the outside areas.

Karen will contact Allen Hopkins for his Civil War songs program.

Mr. Twisty has been hired for the hours 11-1 at $250.

Civil War program will be presented by Bill York. Others may still join him and Rick will work on that.

Rick will do displays on the Civil War, maybe O'Rourke Middle School, a Christmas tree with questions about the town, general pictures and articles about Burnt Hills.

"Volunteens" will record people's oral histories on Flip Videos. Rick has a town video camera that can be used as well.

There was discussion about the possibility of the library project kids' quilt being displayed with an explanation of how it was done.

Expenses: Mr. Twisty: $250/ York: $100/ other Civil War people $100+/ Publicity $30-50/
Hopkins: $250

Docents for the exhibit areas will be secured by Rick (from the BHBL Women's Club) and by Karen (from Friends of the Library). Karen will see if any men would be available for helping with parking.

Next meetings: June 14, July 5, both at 7PM, Community Library
