

Town of Ballston Landowner's Conference

Please join us for a FREE Pancake Breakfast, and Conversation about the many topics involving landownership in the Town of Ballston. Following a delicious meal made possible through the donations of farms right here in our town, a representative from American Farmland Trust and Jamie O'Neil (Senior Planner, Town of Malta) will present about topics and concerns regarding farmland and land preservation. Comments and questions will be welcomed upon the conclusion of presentations.
